Generation No. 1

1. JOHANNES<sup>2</sup> CUNNIUS (JOHN JACOB<sup>1</sup>) was born 17 Feb 1732/33 in Dorfe Winterheim, Germany, and died 20 Feb 1808 in Reading, Berks Co., PA. He married MARIA ELIZABETH CATHERINE GRIESEMER 24 Jan 1755 in Berks Co., PA, daughter of VALENTINE GRIESEMER. She was born 1736, and died 1816.

Notes for JOHANNES CUNNIUS:

Johannes (Johann Jacob Cunius) was born in Germany 1733. He migrated with his family and arrived in Philadelphia on October 7, 1749 aboard the ship Leslie, with J. Ballendine as the captain. They departed from Rotterdam by way of Cowes, Isle of Wight. There were 400 persons on board from Palatinate, Mannheim, and Zweybruchen.

They settled in Hereford Township, Berks Co., PA. Cunnius is listed as early as 1767 as a joiner in Hereford Township and as late as 1790 in the same location. He was first noted in Reading in 1792 while completing work on Trinity Luthern Church there.

He joined the Revolutionary army and fought for Independence, as evidenced by two settlement sheets listing him as a member of the 20th Pennsylvania Regiment. On one sheet dated Aug 2, 1784, he received $20 as a gratuity allowed by Congress to non-commissioned officers and privates who served during the Revolutionary War. This is certificate 73480.

A second document dated Aug 2, 1784, indicates he received $102 as his pay from 1 Jan 1783 to 3 Nov 1783 w/interest from 4 Nov 1783. This is certificate 73122.

He was a master wood carver. His building accomplishments are well-documented, including Faulkner Swamp Reformed Church, Gilbertsville, PA (1790); Trinity Lutheran Church, Reading, PA (1791-1793), and St. Stephan's Reformed Church, New Holland, PA (1799-1801), to name a few. He was also a clock case carver and it was his practice to carve his intertwined initials "JC" on his work. His initials can also be found on the buildings he constructed, usually on the front facade.

An example of his craftsmanship can be found in the Daniel Oyster home, 40 South 5th St., Reading, PA, that exist today (2003)

He died on Feb 20, 1808 in Reading, PA

This his obit: CUNNIUS, John, died here last Sunday at an old age. (2-22-1808 edition of the "Reading Adler," Reading, Berks County PA

Notes for JOHANNES JACOB CUNNIUS:

Family tradition..... 03/25/03

This man was German and spoke broken English and brought his German bible with him from the old country; his first wife's name is not know. He settled on Silver Creek very early and took for his second wife Mary Phelps in 1808 (?) --records indicate she married the son of Johannes --- He said on the morning of her death, when he met a neighbor; "well, the old devel is dead."

He lived near a body of water on the creek still called the Cunis Hole. (Madison Co., KY)

He made his will Oct 17, 1840 and it was probated Jan 13, 1863. In the will he names his wife Mary Phelps and the following children:

William
Elizabeth
Talton
Lettie

Notes for BENJAMIN FRANK CUNNIUS:

The following is an article that appeared in "Pioneer History of Wise County" by Cliff D. Cates, compiled under the auspices of the Wise County Old Settlers' Association - 1907.

++++BRAVE FIGHT OF FRANK COONIS++++ (this incident occurred in ca 1870, perhaps a little prior to 1870, because Benjamin Frank Cunnius is not in the 1870 Wise Co., TX census, however I think his widow, Ellen is listed along with a child, Louisa age 1, also living in their residence is a person named; William Cunnius, age 17, black)

One day during the period when the Indians had been very active, Frank Coonis left his father-in-law's home near Greenwood, and started to Hickory Plains, where he had been informed a white citizen had recaptured some stolen horses from the Indians.

Coonis and his father-in-law had lost some horses the day before and he made the trip to Hickory Plains, thinking possibly some of the recaptured horses belonged to him

Next morning he had not returned and the neighbors grew suspicious, wagging their heads over Coonis' probable fate.

Wm. Weatherby, Sr., Ishmael Copeland, Jim Cooly and _____ Montgomery started in search. Along the route the buzzards circled over the carcasses of horses killed by Indians on a recent raid through the country.

Arriving in the vicinity of the old Keep ranch house, which had been empty for two years, Weatherby was moved to ride by and look in at the windows. His attention had been attracted to the buzzards slowly wheeling about the house.

Here he encountered a gruesome sight. Lying with his head resting on his coat was Coonis, with a great ugly wound in his neck and blood spattered about the floor.

The window casings showed bloody imprints of hands as did also the parts of the neck about the death wound, indicating that changing holds of the casing and neck alternately with his hands, Coonis had fought the Indians a courageous fight from the window. The shells in the chambers of his two pistols were all fired, with the exception of one, which was snapped.

Evidently he had bravely defended himself, but with what damage to the Indians no one knew.

Weatherby crawled upon the corncrib and signaled to his companions to come and assist in the disposition of their dead neighbor's body.

The Cunnius Family

Notes for JAMES H CUNNIUS:

The following story from the Fort Smith Weekly Elevator of [Friday] April 15, 1887, concerns a shootout in which a young African-American, Crowder Nicks, played a prominent role. At the time Nicks did not hold a deputy marshal commission, but his outstanding action in this incident undoubtedly helped him receive one.

WM FIELDS MURDERED

The Successor of Sam Sixkiller Shot

While in the Discharge of His Duty.

The U.S. Indian Police Again Without a Captain

James Cunnius, His Slayer Lodged in Jail.

He Pleads Guilty of the Murder.

United States Marshal Carroll received a dispatch on [Apr 4, 1887] Monday morning last, stating that Capt. Will Fields, of the United States Indian Police, had been killed the day previous [Apr 3, 1887] by Jim Cumming, whom he was endeavoring to arrest for larceny. This startling intelligence created a profound sensation among the many friends of Fields in this city, and more especially in court circles, and Mr. Carroll immediately wired to Muskogee for particulars, and in reply received a telegram that the murderer was under arrest, had acknowledged that he was guilty, and would be forthwith started to this place in the charge of Deputy Marshal Bud Kell.

That active young marshal arrived here on Wednesday with the murderer, whose true name is James Cunnius; also with Nark Cunnius [real name Larkin A. Cunnius], brother of James, and Ed Leeper, whom Fields had under arrest when killed. From Marshall Kell we got the following particulars of how poor Will Fields lost his life:

It appears that Jim and Nark Cunnius and Ed Leeper, who is a young fellow, broke into a Missouri Pacific freight car and stole some 800 pounds of flour and three caddies of tobacco, which they carried to their camp, where they were engaged in making railroad ties. Old man Leeper, the father of Ed was apprised of the theft, and not approving of such conduct, reported the matter to Fields, who was a detective on the road as well as a deputy marshal. He secured writs for them, and on Sunday morning last arrested young Leeper and Nark Cunnius nine miles northeast of Eufaula, Creek Nation. Leaving them in charge of other parties, he took with him a colored man named Crowdy [Crowder] Nicks and proceeded to a camp fifteen miles from Eufaula for the purpose of arresting Jim Cunnius. Fields and Crowdy approached the camp on foot and met Cunnius who was riding a mule and was armed with a shotgun and revolver. Fields "threw down" on him with a Winchester, saying, "Jim, I've got a writ for you, throw down your gun," but the words had scarcely issued from his lips when Cunnius fired on him, inflicting a scalp wound, and as quick as a flash jumped from his mule and converted the animal into a breast work. As he dismounted Fields fired on him, when Cunnius returned the shot with the remaining barrel of his gun, putting turkey shot in the left breast of the brave officer, the balls being scattered from his waist to his neck, and falling to the ground he almost instantly expired. This all happened almost in an instant, and as soon as Cunnius fired the last shot from his gun he threw it down and drew a revolver and began shooting at Crowdy Nicks, who returned the fire, and the two men kept up a running fight for a distance of a quarter of a mile through the woods, when Crowdy finally put a ball through the left thigh of his antagonist . . . and he soon threw down his pistol and surrendered to the plunky negro. During the skirmish they exchanged forty or fifty shots, and Crowdy's clothes were perforated with bullets in several places.

Cunnius was born and raised near Decatur, Wise County, Texas, and from there move to Washington Territory [Washington state], where it is said he is wanted on two charges of murder. From there he went into the Indian Territory, where he claims to have lived since June last.

The tragedy created great excitement at Eufaula, and in fact throughout the Territory. The friends of Cunnius threatened to rescue him, and the people of Eufaula and vicinity were in for hanging him. The killing occurred between 12 and 1 o'clock, and a telegram was sent to Muskogee summoning Bud Kell to the scene. When he arrived there he found the excitement intense, and fearing the prisoner would be lynched, he boarded the first train with him on Monday morning had him safely locked in jail at Muskogee. Here excitement soon became general and lynching was strongly talked of, but Kell kept his man well guarded and got off with him early on Tuesday morning by stage for this place [Ft Smith, AR]. At Webber's Falls he was met by a crowd of men, one of whom had a rope, but this vigilant officer hurried on through and no violence was attempted.

William Fields, the murdered man, was a brave and generous officer; a man who was highly esteemed by every one acquainted with him, and greatly admired for his manly, unassuming, genial disposition - in short, he was an honest, honorable, high-toned gentleman. His tragic death adds another bloody page to the history of Indian Territory.

(The following was not included in the book, but is taken from the actual article in the Weekly Elevator, (Apr 5, 1887) that is on microfilm and very difficult to read)

ENTERS PLEA OF GUILTY

Cunnius entered [a] plea of guilty to the charge of murder before Commissioner Tufts of Muskogee, and says he expects to be hung for it. His only excuse was he thought Fields was going to kill him. He takes the matter with the utmost indifference, evincing no signs of regret, but on the contrary, laughed, joked and was jolly all the way down.

A special grand jury was impaneled yesterday morning [Apr 10, 1887] and he will be tried right away, the chances being that he will be hung within ninety days or less time. Old man Leeper will testify that Cunnius swore he would kill the first man who attempted to arrest him.

Nark Cunnius takes the matter much more than his brother, saying he regrets very much that he did not go with Fields when he went to make the arrest. He believes there would have been no trouble if he had been present.

William Fields, the murdered man, was a brave and generous officer who was highly esteemed by every one acquainted with him and greatly admired for his manly, unassuming genial disposition - in short; he was an honest, honorable, high-toned gentleman. His tragic death adds another bloody page to the history to the Indian Territory.

On the 25th of January last, Capt Sam Sixkiller was murdered at Muskogee and a few days later Fields who was his trusted 1st lieutenant, was appointed to the position made vacant by his death and now his mutilated body has been laid away at Atoka where his wife's relatives reside. His bright career having been brought to an sudden and dreadful end while the life of a young wife and mother has been rendered desolate at the hands of a murderous thief and vagabond where own life is hardly worth the taking.

Crowdy Nicks, the negro who displayed such bravery to arresting the suspect single handed, deserves great praise for his act and in appreciation of it, a contribution of $131 was given up on his arrival here and presented to him as a reward. The citizens of the Territories should double the amount.

The following information was gleaned from several other official sources:

The grand jury met on April 13, 1887 to consider the charges against James Cunnius and they handed down an indictment for murder. His trial was scheduled for July 4, 1887 at the U.S. Court Room, Fort Smith, Arkansas.

On May 25, 1887, forty-one days after he was jailed in Ft. Smith, at the age of 35, he died from what is described on his jail record as "dysentery." However, it can be assumed he died from complications of his gunshot wound to the thigh. It is assumed by me that his jailers thought he would be hung anyway, so it wasn't worth the expense to treat him. Remember, he had murdered a law enforcement officer.

He was buried in a pauper's grave in what was called City Cemetery (Now the Oak Cemetery) in Ft Collins. He was buried in Section 24, and his grave was marked with a metal stake. However a municipal building was constructed over this portion of the cemetery.

It is alleged that James Cunnius was also wanted for two murders in the state of Washington.

Notes for JOHN EMSLEY FOSTER:

On July 5, 1862, just before his 32nd birthday, John Emsley Foster volunteered for the Confederate Army. He traveled from Wise County to Collin County where he joined for a three-year tour in Martin's Cavalry Regiment. When he enlisted he brought his horse, which was valued at $160 and his gun, which was valued at $20.

Martin's Cavalry Regiment subsequently became Company K, Martin's Regiment, Texas Cavalry.

The 10th Battalion Texas Cavalry, which was the nucleus of this regiment, appears to have been organized on October 23, 1862, with four companies. It was increased to a regiment about February 6, 1863 by the addition of two independent companies and the four companies of which the 1st Battalion Texas Partisan Rangers was composed. The regiment was first called the 5th Regiment Texas Partisan Rangers but its designation was afterward changed to Martin's Regiment Texas Cavalry. They were dismounted on February 17, 1865.

Brief History of the 5TH Texas Partisan Rangers

Commanding Officer: Leonidas M. Martin (Colonel)

Field Officers: oWilliam M. Weaver (Lieutenant Colonel) William N. Mayrant (Major)

The 5th Texas Cavalry Partisan Rangers, was mustered into Confederate service at Fort Washita, Indian Territory (present day Oklahoma) on February 6th 1863 by Brigadier General Albert Pike. The regiment consisted of the consolidation of the 10th (Martin's) Texas Cavalry Battalion and the 9th (Randolph's) Texas Cavalry Battalion. During their two years and three months of existence, Martin's Regiment participated in several skirmishes and battles during the war. They primarily served in the Indian Territory (I.T.) and the Northern Sub-District of Texas.

Battles fought during the war:

Fort Gibson, Indian Territory (skirmish) (May 1863)

Honey Springs, Indian Territory (July 17, 1863)

Perryville, Indian Territory (skirmish) (August 26, 1863)

Massard Prairie, near Fort Smith, Arkansas [detachment] (July 27, 1864)

Cabin Creek, Indian Territory (September 19, 1864)

The 5th Partisan Rangers were disbanded near Houston, Texas on May 15, 1865.

Notes for FORREST NATHAN WRIGHT:

He is buried in the Reck family plot (wife #2), in Electra, TX

Forrest Nathan Wright was married to Ethelene Gaines on Nov 24, 1936.

There is a divorce in Archer Co, TX #021059 dated 06/09/1971 between Forrest and Ethelene.

Ethelene married Marvin O. Fox in Hardeman Co, TX on 06/09/1971.

It is believe that Forrest and Ethelene were divorce/married/divorce/married/divorced or some such thing before the final divorce in 1971, after which they both remarried othere prople. Haven't proven this mess yet, but think that's what happened.

She married MORMAN PATTERSON, son of H.M. PATTERSON and LEONA VAUGHN. He was born 02 Sep 1922 in Rockwall, TX.

Notes for FAYDEAN PARKHILL:

This girl accused Preacher Wright of being the father of her child in about 1943.

Her parents filed charges of rape against Preacher. He was arrested and spent one day and one night in the Archer City, TX jail. He was bonded out on the promise to appear. The bond was signed by two men who lived in Holiday, TX, one a doctor and the other the grocer.

Preacher and Ethelene Wright, hired an attorney to defend him and it was agreed that if Preacher would pay the parents money they would drop the charges. Preacher was working for an oil company as a pumper and every Christmas he received a one-month bonus. It was this bonus that was given to the girl's parents. The amount of this check is unknown but it was 1/12th of a years salary, represented a lot of money.

Fay Dean was taken to a home for unwed mothers in Fort Worth, TX where she delivered the child, a girl, which was adopted. The child was never to be heard from again.

Children of FAYDEAN PARKHILL and MORMAN PATTERSON are:

- i. BABY GIRL<sup>9</sup> ADOPTED, b. Abt. 1943, Orphans Home, Ft Worth, TX.

Notes for BABY GIRL ADOPTED:

It is family legion that Forrest Preacher Wright got Fay Dean pregnant. Fay Dean, in an attempt to cover her activities, told her parents that Preacher had raped her.

The Archer County Sheriff arrested Preacher and he was charged with rape in Archer Co., TX. He spent the night in jail and the next day was bailed out. The charges were dropped when Preacher and Ethelene agreed to pay the parents. The payment represented the Christmas bonus due Preacher which equaled one month's pay.

Fay Dean was said to have gone to Ft Worth, TX where she had the baby girl and it was immediately put up for adoption, never to be heard from again (the baby that is).

He was born 17 Jan 1947 in Wichita Falls, TX.

Notes for JUDY LUJEAN WRIGHT:

Judy died at 3 P.M. on September 11, 1996 in her home in Wichita Falls, TX. She died as a result of ovarian cancer which was first discovered in August 1995 when she had surgery pursuant to the doctor finding large, hard growths during a pelvic exam. After the surgery, she underwent seven months of chemo. Every third Friday she would enter the hospital and be infused with "rat poison" (as she referred to it).

For the following week she would be very ill, during the second week she would begin to feel human, and during the third week, she was able to go into her office and perform some work on a limited basis. Then it was back to the hospital on Friday for the entire thing to begin anew. Seven months of this torture.

At the conclusion of the chemo she was re-examined and the doctor decided that he needed to operate and have a "look" inside to see what was happening, as Judy was having terrible stomach pains and couldn't seem to pass any feces.

On May 24, 1996 she was operated on in the Wichita Falls General Hospital. After the operation the surgeon came into the waiting room and announced to the family that the cancer had spread and there were several organs involved. His parting comment was, "take her home and give her some quality time."

She was discharged from the hospital about 10 days later and returned to her home on Sherman St. Her daughter, Marisa and her two children, Hayley and Megan moved in with Judy to care for her until her death.

On the day of her death, the hospice home health care worker had just completed giving Judy her daily bath and had moved Judy from the bed to a chair where the worker gave Judy a foot massage and rubbed oil into her legs.

Suddenly, Judy's legs began to spasm, she took three deep breaths, and died. In the room were, Marisa, Ethelene Fox (her mother) and the health care worker. When Judy began to be distressed, Ethelene (knowing what was happening no doubt) told Marisa that she would go into the other room to see that Megan didn't enter the living room to see Judy in this condition.

An hour later the prearranged funeral home arrived and removed the body. The body was taken to Lawton, OK where she was cremated. Her cremains were returned to Marisa one day later.

There was a memorial service conducted at the Hospice facility in Wichita Falls at 7:00 P.M. on Monday, September 16, 1996. Judy had ask that there be no flowers and any remembrance should be directed to the Wichita Falls Hospice people. (Marisa did provide a small vase of flowers to be displayed along side a blown-up picture of Judy and her two grandchildren, Hayley and Megan).

The cremains are in the custody of Marisa Ballard (Judy's daughter). Marisa said she had plans to bury the container in the flower garden at her home Malenkof, TX and if she should move she plans to dig them up and move them with her to her next home's flower garden.

Judy was 49 years of age on her death, much to young!
