Notes for JAMES CURTIS WRIGHT:

G.A.R.

by Bill and Vera Wood

The Grand Army of the Republic, known also as the G.A.R., was a national organization of Union Veterans of the Civil War. Veterans united for comradeship, and to give aid and sympathy to their sick and wounded, and to the widows and orphans of the war. For years the G.A.R. was a strong political force, fighting for benefits and rights of the veterans and their families.

The organization began in Decatur, Illinois in 1866, structured similar to the army. Under the state "Departments" the local chapters were called "Posts" with officers known as "Commander", "Vice-Commander", "Chaplain", "Quartermaster" and "Adjutant". Annual meetings were called "Encampments" and the first held by the Department of Missouri was 1882, in Kansas City. Local Posts would also hold an annual Encampment, often lasting four or five days, with parades, speeches and meals on the grounds. The old soldiers enjoyed these reunions with their comrades.

The following is an account of the organizational meeting of a G.A.R. Post at Bradleyville, Missouri, including the Muster Roll of that Post, as published in the Taney County Republican newspaper on December 8, 1903.

"G .A .R. POST ORGANIZED AT BRADLEYVILLE"

"J. J. BRUTON Post No. 577 G.A.R., Department of Missouri, was organized at Bradleyville last Friday evening in due form by comrades from the Corporal Doke Post No. 406 of Garrison."

J. J. Bruton Post begins with twelve charter members, and at the close of the ceremony instituting the post there were applications for membership filed by a number of comrades. We are promised a copy of the muster roll and will send it in for publication next week. Officers of the post were duly elected and installed."

The Muster Roll of J .J. Bruton Post No. 577, G .A .R., Bradleyville, Missouri as published in the Taney County Republican on December 15, 1903.

She was born 1858 in Swan Twship, Taney Co., MO, and died 02 Nov 1887 in Bradleyville, Taney Co., MO.

Notes for NATHAN WRIGHT:

In the 1870 Baldwin City, Douglas County, KANSAS, I find Nathan living with his first wife Rhoda and their three children;

Sarah, b:1866 MO

Susannah b:1868 MO

Lewis Nathan b:1869 MO

So..... Nathan left the army in 1865, married Rhoda Barnes in Douglas County on Sept 4, 1886 - (I find her in the 1860 Taney Co census, living with her presumed mother, Sarah b: ca 1805, and Rhoda's two younger brothers). Nathan & Rhoda then had three children, all born in Missouri, then moved to Kansas when the youngest was about a year old.

Did Rhoda die in Douglas Co., Kansas in ca 1870? She must have, because in the 1870 census their youngest child, Lewis Nathan is one year old on his last birthday and he says he was born in Missouri. So between his birth in '69 and the taking of the '70 census, they relocated to Kansas.

Nathan returned to Missouri, because in 1871 he married his #2 wife, Elmina Caroline Stanley in Taney Co., MO, where they would have one daughter, Effie Jane. Then Elmina dies on Oct 2, 1876.

Then in 1879 he marries his #3 wife, Mary Elizabeth Moseley in Taney Co., MO, where they have two sons; Charles Easton (my grandfather) & James Curtis.

Both Nathan and Mary Elizabeth die in 1887.

Whew!

Now the strange part.... Nathan's brother James Curtis, was also married to a woman named Rhoda who lived and died about the same years as Nathan's Rhoda. James Curtis & Rhoda are buried in Bradleyville (Missouri) Cemetery and this Rhoda has a birth date of Feb 7, 1841, and a death date of Apr 15, 1869. I found the wife of Nathan, Rhoda in the 1870 Kansas census, so these can't be the same people since one died in 1869, and the other lives in 1870. Or could they be?

Notes for JUDY LUJEAN WRIGHT:

Judy died at 3 P.M. on September 11, 1996 in her home in Wichita Falls, TX. She died as a result of ovarian cancer which was first discovered in August 1995 when she had surgery pursuant to the doctor finding large, hard growths during a pelvic exam. After the surgery, she underwent seven months of chemo. Every third Friday she would enter the hospital and be infused with "rat poison" (as she referred to it).

For the following week she would be very ill, during the second week she would begin to feel human, and during the third week, she was able to go into her office and perform some work on a limited basis. Then it was back to the hospital on Friday for the entire thing to begin anew. Seven months of this torture.

At the conclusion of the chemo she was re-examined and the doctor decided that he needed to operate and have a "look" inside to see what was happening, as Judy was having terrible stomach pains and couldn't seem to pass any feces.

On May 24, 1996 she was operated on in the Wichita Falls General Hospital. After the operation the surgeon came into the waiting room and announced to the family that the cancer had spread and there were several organs involved. His parting comment was, "take her home and give her some quality time."

She was discharged from the hospital about 10 days later and returned to her home on Sherman St. Her daughter, Marisa and her two children, Hayley and Megan moved in with Judy to care for her until her death.

On the day of her death, the hospice home health care worker had just completed giving Judy her daily bath and had moved Judy from the bed to a chair where the worker gave Judy a foot massage and rubbed oil into her legs.

Suddenly, Judy's legs began to spasm, she took three deep breaths, and died. In the room were, Marisa, Ethelene Fox (her mother) and the health care worker. When Judy began to be distressed, Ethelene (knowing what was happening no doubt) told Marisa that she would go into the other room to see that Megan didn't enter the living room to see Judy in this condition.

An hour later the prearranged funeral home arrived and removed the body. The body was taken to Lawton, OK where she was cremated. Her cremains were returned to Marisa one day later.

There was a memorial service conducted at the Hospice facility in Wichita Falls at 7:00 P.M. on Monday, September 16, 1996. Judy had ask that there be no flowers and any remembrance should be directed to the Wichita Falls Hospice people. (Marisa did provide a small vase of flowers to be displayed along side a blown-up picture of Judy and her two grandchildren, Hayley and Megan).

The cremains are in the custody of Marisa Ballard (Judy's daughter). Marisa said she had plans to bury the container in the flower garden at her home Malenkof, TX and if she should move she plans to dig them up and move them with her to her next home's flower garden.

Judy was 49 years of age on her death, much to young!
